

8 Ways Roadmap

A training empowering educators and leaders to embed First Nations perspectives

Date: August 14-15, 2025
Time: 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM
Location: Online via Zoom

For early learning, primary, and secondary educators and staff

Join this two-day professional learning event and gain:

- A deep understanding of the 8 Ways of Aboriginal educational pedagogy
- Practical tools and strategies to embed First Nations perspectives into any lesson, subject area, or unit
- Confidence in teaching cultural knowledge in a respectful and meaningful way
- A one-year subscription to our TIPIAC resource membership and Balaa Ai, your First Nations cultural curriculum coach.

Why attend?

- ✓ Aligns with curriculum requirements
- ✓ Supports Reconciliation Action Plans (RAPs)
- ✓ Enhances cultural competence in teaching
- ✦ Limited spots available! Register now to secure your place.

Register now via the QR code

What others are saying about this 8 Ways training

How to embed the 8 Ways into our teaching and unit plans. I loved the connections I have made and can't wait to share with the leaders at my school.

Anonymous - Primary Educator

Empowering, engaging, in depth, you explained the how and the why behind pedagogical approaches, regular breaks, promotion of different learning styles, small group work.

Alana - Educator

Time to unpack 8 ways of learning which I have looked at academically but never spent time translating how to use it in my context.

Kate - Primary Education Leader

How to embed the 8 Ways into our teaching and unit plans. I loved the connections I have made and can't wait to share with the leaders at my school.

Anonymous - Educational Leader

How to practically embed into our daily practices.

Fiona - EYL Educator

TIPIAC is a NESA-endorsed PD provider.