The 8 Ways Roadmap

*Two-Day Professional Development Workshop for Educators
Hosted by TIPIAC Pty Ltd*

 Australian Museum, Sydney NSW

 Monday 23rd & Tuesday 24th March 2026

 9:00 am – 3:30 pm both days

Why Attend

This hands-on workshop guides teachers through the 8 Ways Aboriginal Pedagogy Framework, helping educators authentically embed First Nations perspectives across all curriculum areas.

Participants will:

- Build cultural confidence and understanding through story, symbolism, and connection to Country.
- Learn practical tools for programming and lesson design that reflect Aboriginal ways of learning.
- Experience a First Nations-led tour through Garrigarrang: Sea Country at the Australian Museum.
- Develop a personal and school-wide roadmap for embedding cultural perspectives.

Why it matters for schools

- Strengthens your team's capacity to meet the Australian Curriculum Cross-Curriculum Priority: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Histories and Cultures.
- Builds a culturally safe and responsive learning environment.
- Supports your school's Reconciliation Action Plan and professional learning goals.
- Aligns with NESAs-recognised professional development in Aboriginal education.

What others are saying about this 8 Ways training

How to embed the 8 Ways into our teaching and unit plans. I loved the connections I have made and can't wait to share with the leaders at my school.

Anonymous - Primary Educator

Empowering, engaging, in depth, you explained the how and the why behind pedagogical approaches, regular breaks, promotion of different learning styles, small group work.

Alana - Educator

Time to unpack 8 ways of learning which I have looked at academically but never spent time translating how to use it in my context.
